Just a quick note to let you all know that you are in the right place at the right time. If you have been counting the Omer, you've been using one of David's Psalms in the shape of a menorah and counting one word each day and one letter of its central column each day. Today is the 33rd day. In another blog we'll reveal why certain of the days have extra special energy, notably the 8th, 25th, 33rd and 49th days, but today, is L'ag B'Omer, the gematria of which is 358, that of Mashiach, when the kolel of the 7 letters is included. It is the hillula of Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai, who has a spark of Moses, who was an aspect of H'Moshiach.

The 33rd day of the Omer is kabbalistically hod of hod, or the 5th level (sefira) of the 5th level, and thus is related to the very center of the counting, the 25th day or 5 x 5, 8 days earlier. And by the way it's no coincidence that the first 8 words of the Torah have 33 words and a total value of 3003.

Here is what we can reveal today, the sum of the words/letters counted through the midpoint in the (through the 1st Mem in Yamim) counting is 5778 including the kolel for the 25 days and the sum of the square roots of those 25 words is 345, that of Moses. Remember 5778 is 9. or 3 x 3. years from now, 3330 years after the Torah was first received in 2448 HC. And as unconceivable as it is, up to that 25th word, the sum of the square roots of the 24 words is 333.078 or 3330 years and 78, as in the initials of Etz Chaim, the tree-of-life.

But what puts us in the right place at the right time is that the sum of the square roots of the 33 letters we counted through this evening is 220.095 or 5/12/2009, May 12th 2009, tonight. And the sum of the square roots of the sofit values of the same 33 letters is 256.44, the numerical value of Aaron, Moses' brother and another aspect of Mashiach.

Today, the energy of Mashiach that was earned during 8 days of Pesach this year is being revealed to us and for us through Rabbi Shimon Bar Yochai and was marked on a counting system invented thousands of years ago.

For once, we are in the right place at the right time. Let's take full advantage of it and change the world. See you all soon on facebook.
