This blog is for you and us. Ask questions and add your comments to any of the posts on this blog. We will be happy to answer any "crazy" Kabbalah questions.

Kabbalah is the most comprehensive manual to understand life from the seed level. From the thought of creation to the cause and effect of your action at this moment.

The Zohar brings 70 explanations to the first word of the Bible "???????" (in the beginning). We'll try to bring many of those explanations to this blog.

We'll explain all the basic teaching of Kabbalah and go deeper as much as you want us to go there.

We are in the generation where all knowledge is open for all. The secrets are no longer secrets. Advanced communications, Internet systems, social networking sites connect people from east and west to north and south, no matter where you are.

What ever we know, we'll bring out. Whatever we don't know we'll try to study together with you, your questions and comments.

Let the journey begin.
